

Does Teacher Induction Matter?

Richard M. Ingersoll
Associate Professor of Education and Sociology
University of Pennsylvania and Consortium for Policy Research in Education

Numbers of Teachers in Transition During the 1999-2000 School Year

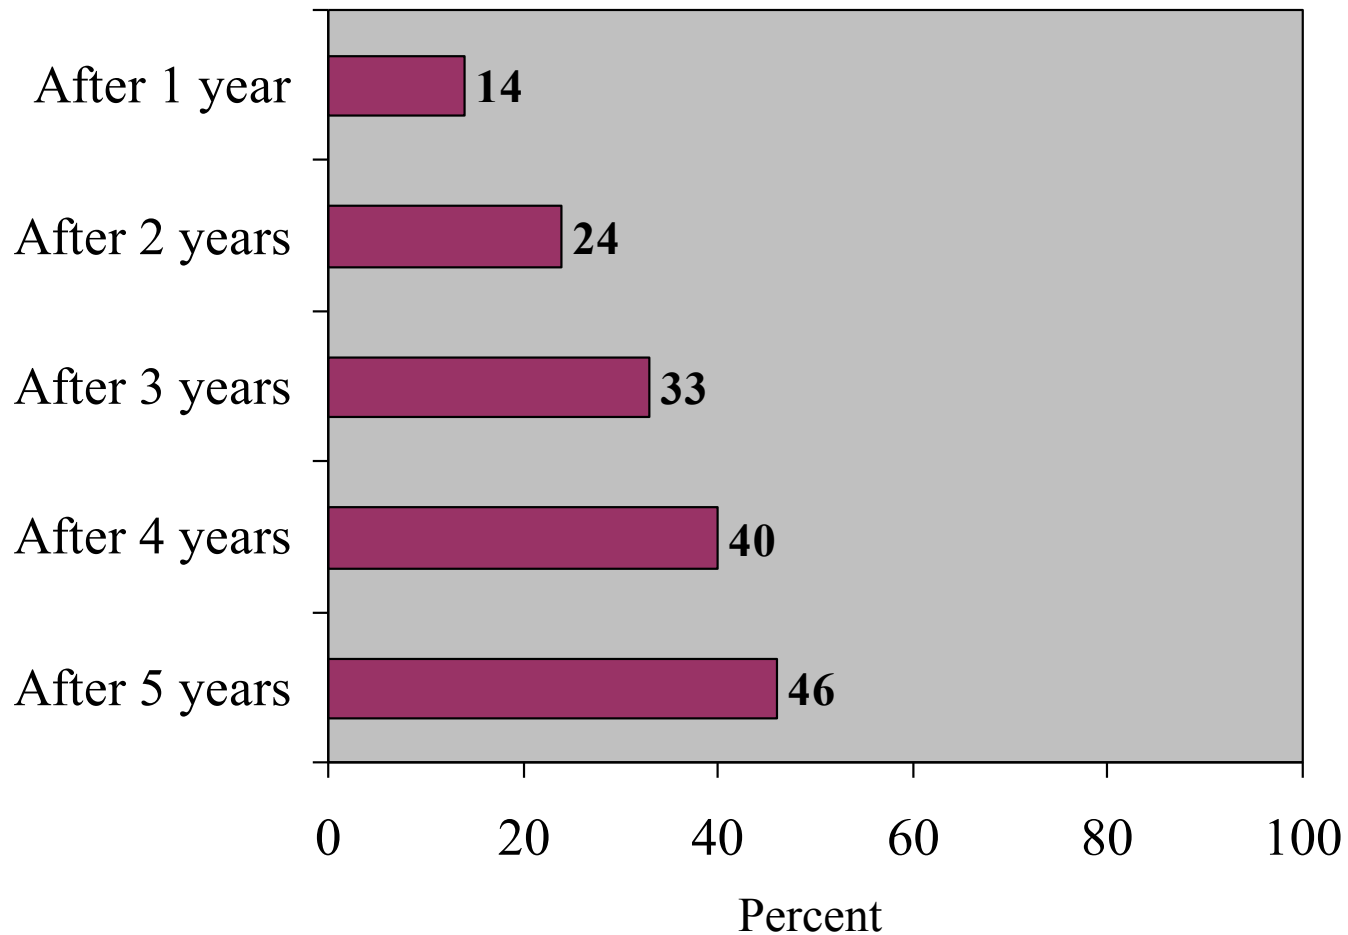

Not in Transition
2,376,677

Departures
539,778

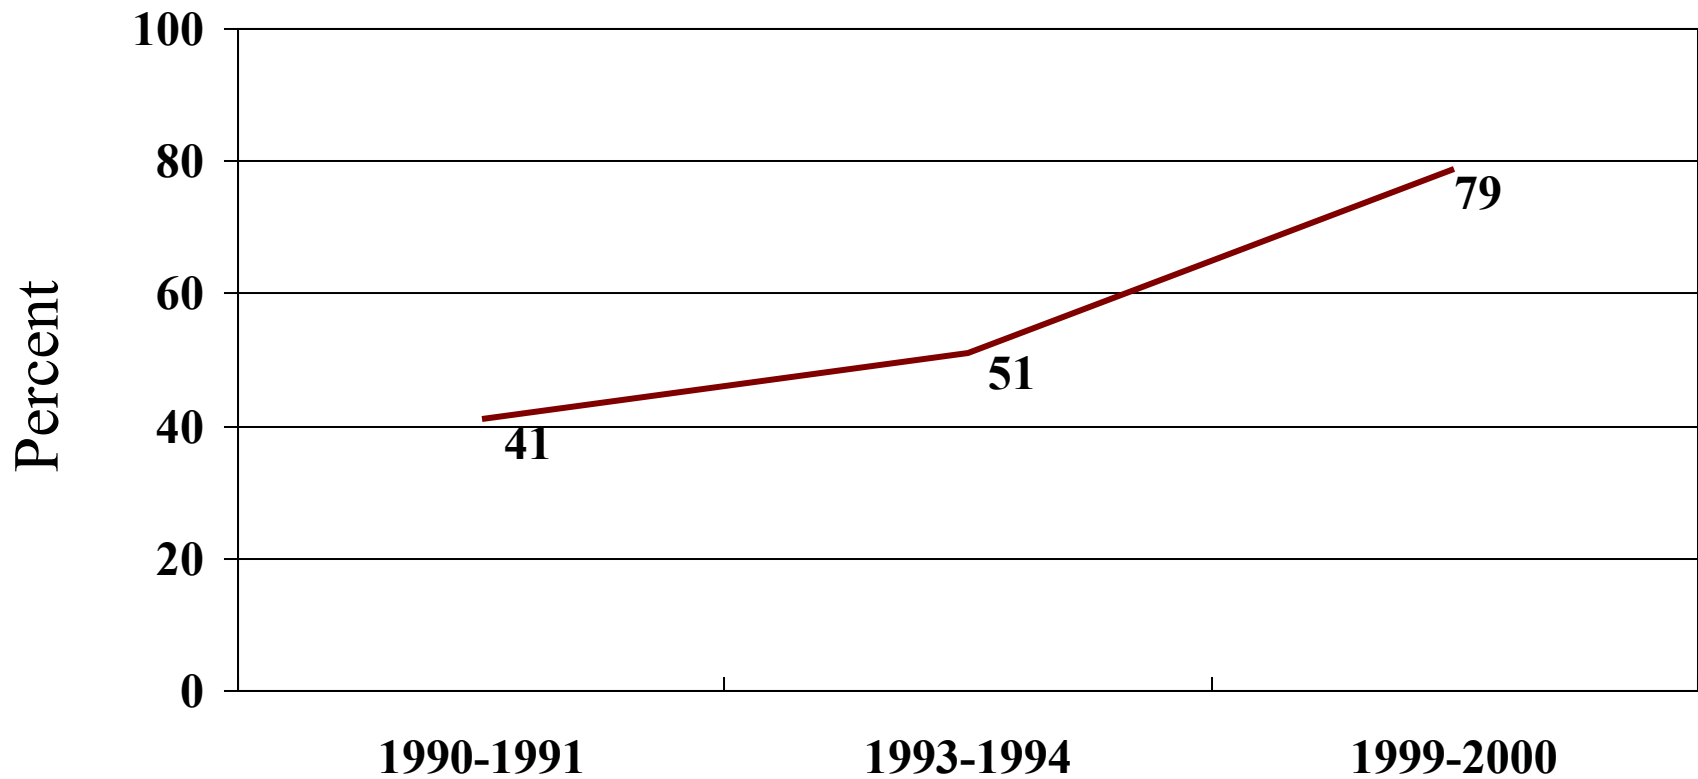

Entrants
534,861

Beginning Teacher Attrition (Cumulative Percent Teachers Having Left Teaching Occupation, by Years of Experience)

Trends in Beginning Teachers' Participation in Induction Programs

Percent Turnover After First Year of Beginning Teachers, According to Amount of Induction Support They Received

