Instructional Practices and Global Competencies: Strategies for Educators

Jackie MacFarlane
Senior Research Associate
Study Questions

- What can system-level leaders do to promote instruction focused on deeper learning?

- What can school leaders do to support instructional practices?

- What can teachers do to improve instructional practices?
Communicating a Vision

- Articulate consistent expectations and practices
- Adopt common frameworks or strategies
Using Data to Inform Instruction

- Create buy-in for instructional improvement
- Identify trends and needs
- Prioritize group(s) of students
Supporting Teachers

- Provide common planning time
- Offer opportunities to learn from colleagues
- Place school leaders in instructional leadership roles
Collaboration Between Educators

- Ensure coherence in policies and practices
- Establish continuity between feeder schools
Continuous Improvement

- Be willing to improve practice and try new things

- Challenge and engage students through:
  - Safe learning environments
  - Multiple points of access
  - Choices and options
  - Lessons that are applicable and relatable
Questions?

Contact Information:
- Jackie MacFarlane, Senior Research Associate
  - jmacfarlane@policystudies.com
  - 202-939-9782