The Importance of Investing in Middle Schools

Historically, middle school has been underrepresented, undervalued, and underfunded by policymakers when compared to other years of a student’s educational career. On the funding question, a new analysis by the Alliance for Excellent Education (All4Ed) finds that grades 6–8 received the least amount of federal funding of any grade span in Fiscal Year 2019, followed closely by grades 9–12. This lack of equitable funding can lead to poor instructional quality and a lack of challenging curriculum, but there are ways to address it.

How Families, Communities, and Educational Environments Affect Student Learning and Development

There is a growing consensus that students’ educational environments affect how they learn and develop. Ongoing correlational research shows how a range of factors, including pedagogical approaches and access to quality academic resources, contribute to different educational outcomes for students. Meanwhile, more recent neuroscientific discoveries examine how these factors... influence the brain, learning, and behavior.

Grant Applications Now Available for Perkins Innovation and Modernization Grant Program

The U.S. Department of Education (ED) is now accepting applications for new awards for fiscal year 2019 for the Perkins Innovation and Modernization Grant Program. Interested applicants are strongly encouraged, but not required, to submit a notice of intent to apply by May 15, 2019.

According to the notice in the Federal Register, the Perkins Innovation and Modernization Grant Program is designed to “identify, support, and rigorously evaluate evidence-based and innovative strategies and activities to improve and modernize Career and Technical Education (CTE).” The grant is also meant to ensure that workforce skills taught in CTE programs funded under the Strengthening Career and Technical Education for the 21st Century Act (Perkins V) align with labor market needs.

On April 25, ED is encouraging all interested applicants to participate in a webinar that it will host on Thursday, April 25 at 2:00 p.m. (EDT).

All4Ed ESSA Data Makes Appearance at Hearing with DeVos

Data from an All4Ed report demonstrating that twelve state ESSA plans did not include subgroups of students in all of their school ratings made an appearance at a hearing with Education Secretary Betsy DeVos recently. This was thanks to Del. Gregorio Sablan, the chairman of the House education subcommittee, who raised this information while questioning DeVos about states not following the law, reports Education Week's Politics K-12 blog.
